Please note
new Deadline:
6pm on 14th
of each month.

The days are becoming longer and we have been enjoying the snowdrops and the first colour of spring. It is relief after the cold, dark days. An awakening of hope, light and warmth. Spring in Dutch is "lente", in Old English it was "lencten" referring to the lengthening of the days. This used to be the hunger season. For the birds it still is. The last of the previous harvest gone, all the seeds gone, too cold for insects, no new produce yet.

In this time, in March the Church starts a season it calls "Lent". We count forty days before Easter¹. Forty years, so the story tells us, the Israelites wandered in the desert after they fled from Egypt and before they entered the promised land. Forty years of becoming a people. Forty days, as the gospel recounts, Jesus is in the wilderness, after he was baptised and before he begins his ministry. Forty days of reflection, prayer and fasting.

Although our seasons are different from those in the desert and although our wildernesses are different from those in Israel and although the things we prepare for are different from those throughout history, we stand in a long tradition of stopping some of our routines, taking time to reflect, and finding joy in the simple things. In the Chalke Valley we celebrate Lent with generosity. This year we support CRESS, a charity that supports South Sudanese refugees in Uganda through education. You are very welcome to join us for the Lenten lunch in aid of CRESS and other initiatives you will find in this Notes and News.

May this season bring us light and compassion.
Reverend Anna-Claar Thomasson-Rosingh

1. For those who have counted on their calendars from the start of Lent (on Ash Wednesday, 6 March) to Easter and find 46 days, you are right! But there are six Sundays in that time and Sunday is a feast day, not a day for fasting.

Odstock Nunton and Bodenham WI

February Meeting

President Sally Hadley welcomed everyone and thanked Peggy Knight for her beautiful arrangement of tulips.

The Theatre, Walking and Gardening groups, the Book club, and Needles and Pins are all going well. The latter are taking part in a National WI project called '3 Bags Full', and will make bags for the members to fill with suitable items for homeless women.

Sally announced that tickets for our event 'The Calendar Girls' are selling well.

After coffee Sara Bottomley gave members an interesting talk entitled 'My Quilting Journey' which was about her taking up quilting as an army wife on postings from Cyprus to the USA and Africa. Starting in 1991 with a quilt made for her parents, Sara met inspiring quilters who taught her further skills and she moved on to teach quilting both in Kuwait and Kenya sourcing local fabrics, before being posted to the Falkland Islands. Sara showed us a large number of quilts both varied and beautiful, which were greatly admired. Dee Prince thanked Sara on behalf of those attending.

The AGM takes place on Monday 11 March. The John McNeill Centre is our chosen charity for this year and, after the business of the AGM, Angela Bryant from the Centre will give us a presentation about the work they do.

Odstock Parish Council News

The Parish Meeting on Monday 11 February was held in the Barker Room. We were delighted to see so many; thank you all for coming along.

Improvements to Nunton Drove Corner

The Longford Estate has put this project on hold while further work is done assessing the potential ecological impact, as there are concerns that the section of hedge to be removed may be inhabited by protected species.

Parish Projects for 2019

We agreed that the top priorities for this year's work programme will be:

Repairs to Nunton playground equipment, Replacement/restoration of the Nunton playground fence, Repairs to bridge at Jubilee Gardens, Boardwalk around the tree bordering the C12 opposite Odstock church, New picnic benches in Nunton Field, Odstock recreation ground, and Jubilee Gardens.

Dog Waste

There has been an increase in the number of dog poo bags left in and around Nunton Field. Please remember to take your poo bags with you when you leave the Field. They can be put in the litter bin by the bus stop outside The Orchard, or in your own domestic waste bin.

Community Speedwatch

The Community Speedwatch Team will be back in action again this month, with the aim of calming the speed of traffic through our villages. Please contact the team leader if you wish to help.

See E-News&Notes for full report.

Villages Facebook Group

The new Facebook Group dedicated to our News and Notes community launched in January and is already growing. We have 47 members and 41 invitees awaiting approval. Find the group at <https://www.facebook.com/groups/BBCON/> and click +Join Group if you wish to do so. It is a closed group to restrict public access.

Yew Tree, Odstock - Open for Business

The Landlord, Gordon, has told N&N that he is pleased to announce that although minor works are ongoing they now have full use of the car park.

He is looking forward to welcoming you back to the Yew Tree; please support them.

TWO GREAT WAYS TO BOOST YOUR WELL-BEING AND FITNESS

The Radnor Hall in Bodenham is especially good for singing in and especially nice to dance in and there are regular sessions of both activities there on Monday evenings, open to everyone, friendly and good fun.

Local Vocals

On 1st and 3rd Mondays, the community singing group 'Local Vocals' meets to sing a wide range of songs for all voices, all taught by ear. No need to read music - just come and have a good sing.

Dancing

On 2nd and 4th Mondays the Hall is filled with wonderful music from all round the world, as we dance simple traditional dances, lively and uplifting or peaceful and relaxing, from many parts of the world. Again, all taught as we go along, just come as you are, no partner needed.

All sessions 7.30-9.30pm, cost £7.

Church News

Reflection: Journeys: Walk The Talk

By Reverend Anna-Claar Thomasson-Rosingh

The one greatest obstacle to spirituality is hypocrisy. I will never forget a chat in the pub when I was twenty three and my volleyball teammate said: "you cannot be a Christian, you are not a hypocrite". I didn't try to explain that I was really, because my ideals and ideas, and my values and beliefs would never quite match what I manage to live out in community, creativity or my relationship with nature.

The talk is sometimes a bit too hard to walk all the way. We all know and appreciate the many people who get on with it quietly, those who live out an implicit spirituality in a selfless and graceful life. Jesus was also very aware of this; he said: "Not everyone who says to me, "Lord, Lord", will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only one who does the will of my Father in heaven." (Matthew 7:21)

In the Chalke Valley this Lent our theme is "Journeys". That is a theme that invites us to reflect on what we are actually going to do about it. What is the next step? What action are we taking? All the talk about spirituality is empty if there is no action to follow it up. For those of us who like to "do" rather than to "sit and stare" this is a moment of relief. Let us get on with it. It is also in the action that there is a profound sense of satisfaction, a deep sense of being in the right place at the right time.

What are you going to do about your deeply held convictions and the values you would like to live out?

Please feel free to contact me with questions or answers or prayers or something else.

Shalom (peace and goodwill), Anna-Claar

Odstock Parish Council News

The Parish Meeting on Monday 11 February was held in the Barker Room next to Nunton Church. We were very pleased to see so many of you at the meeting; thank you all for coming along.

Improvements to Nunton Drove Corner

The Longford estate has put this project on hold while further work is done assessing the potential ecological impact, as there are concerns that the section of hedge to be removed may be inhabited by protected species.

Parish Projects for 2019

We agreed that the top priorities for this year's work programme will be:

- Repairs to Nunton playground equipment
- Replacement/restoration of the Nunton playground fence
- Repairs to bridge at Jubilee Gardens
- Boardwalk around the tree bordering the C12 opposite Odstock church
- New picnic benches in Nunton Field, Odstock recreation ground, and Jubilee Gardens

It is possible that we may be able to secure funding grants towards some of this work. We will undertake a review of our future financial commitments before deciding upon any further capital projects.

Dog Waste

It has been brought to the Parish Council's attention that there has been an increase in the number of dog poo bags left in and around Nunton Field. Please remember to take your poo bags with you when you leave the Field. They can be put in the litter bin by the bus stop outside The Orchard, or in your own domestic waste bin.

Community Speedwatch

The Community Speedwatch Team will be back in action again this month, with the aim of calming the speed of traffic through our villages. If you would be willing to become part of this excellent team please let us know and we will put you in contact with the Team Leader.

Date of next meeting

The next scheduled meeting of OPC is on Monday 20 May at 7.30 pm, in the Pavilion in Nunton Field. You are warmly encouraged to come along. Minutes of previous OPC meetings, local planning applications, and other interesting local information can be found on the OPC website at: <http://www.sp5.org/odstock/opc>.
