24 July 2021
Nunton Field

Saturday

From 4.30 pm - Picnic in the Park

Free entry!

The pandemic has meant our community event is a little reduced this year and therefore there is no entry charge. However, as the Fete & EbblesFest are our annual fund raising activities, those attending will be subject to enthusiastic encouragement to purchase Grand Draw tickets. First prize £200 cash, second prize £100!

The Giggling Gourmet

Selection of delicious hot food from The Yew Tree - on wheels!

Hooves for Coffee

Hot & cold drinks, specialty teas & coffees, cakes & ice creams

Bouncy castle

Please note this will be under parental supervision only

Barrel of booze

Look out to buy tickets for this coveted prize as it weaves its way around the picnic rugs!

Live music from local bands

The Duskers

Unique alternative country, rootsy Americana.

Badger Blues

Our very own village rock star, Brian Clake and band will be playing bluesy rock classics from the 50's to present.

Break Cover

Returning to headline, Break Cover are a firm favourite at EbblesFest. They'll have you dancing under the stars, until its time to go home.

Sunday

11 am - Riverside Church Service

Jubilee Gardens, Odstock

11.30 am - The Duck Race

Which duck will win? It's a race down the River Ebbles from Odstock Bridge to Jubilee Gardens!

To enter: Visit the Duck Stall on Saturday afternoon.

12 noon – The Raft Race

Time to get wet! Set off your homemade rafts from Odstock Bridge and set sail for Jubilee Gardens, may the best raft win!

Landlubbers can spectate at Jubilee Gardens

To enter: call Stewart Ford on 07810 801 978

And keep the festivities going...

Head to The Radnor Arms, Nunton for pub lunch and local beers.
