Next Deadline:
14 June for July & August issue

In 2022, Her Majesty The Queen will become the first British Monarch to celebrate a Platinum Jubilee after 70 years of service.

The Platinum Jubilee Weekend takes place from 2nd to 5th June. Our villages are all doing something to celebrate. Thursday and Friday are both national 'thank' holidays.

On Thursday 2 June, more than 2000 beacons will be lit throughout the United Kingdom, Channel Islands, Isle of Man and UK Overseas Territories, and one in each of the capital cities of Commonwealth countries in recognition of The Queen's long and selfless service. Our local Beacon, organised by Longford Estate, will be on the hills overlooking Nunton and Odstock and be lit at 9.45 pm, and visible from the villages.

On Friday 3 June, there are celebrations in Charlton All Saints; an all day event with activities for children in the morning, a Jazz afternoon and finally an evening of entertainment. Likewise, Britford is organising a village afternoon event on the Green, with fun stalls, a bar and teas.

Odstock with Nunton and Bodenham are celebrating with EbbleFest on Saturday 4 June on the Nunton Field with live bands, a medieval troop, bouncy castle, bottle tombola, tractor rides as well as food and bars.

EbbleFest will continue on Sunday with our annual Riverside service, the Duck and Raft race followed by a 'Street Party' lunch on Nunton field, which is open to everyone in all our villages to join in.

This is a very special weekend, and lots of people in the community have worked hard to organise these events. Full details of all these events are inside, as well as a What's On summary. See eN&N via the website for more colourful flyers.

You are very welcome at ALL these celebrations. After a couple of years of not being able to get together, let us all now meet up with our friends, new and old, and celebrate Her Majesty's wonderful achievement as a community.

The organisers look forward to welcoming you to all these events.

We love food and we love a great occasion. Our aim is to produce a memorable feast for you and your guests.

We love the colours and full flavours of Southern European and Middle Eastern foods, so that's what we specialise in, although often mixed in with classic English dishes too.

We work across the South West of England & mostly in Wiltshire, Dorset, Hampshire & London. We are based in Salisbury, Wiltshire & are preferred caterers at a number of local venues – St Giles House, Ashley Wood Farm, Barford Park farm but we have catered events in country houses, stately homes, marquees, factories, offices, cliff tops, river banks, back gardens, shops, showrooms and beaches

We do wedding catering, birthday parties, anniversaries, canapé receptions, guest chef evenings, festivals, press days, corporate launches, business lunches and away days for between 70 – 400 guests

Bodenham and Nunton W.I Report

9 May 2022

Our President opened the meeting, welcomed every one and wished all members having a birthday next month a very happy one. An update on all the sub-groups was given. Elizabeth Cutter announced the forming of a luncheon group. This was received with a good response.

We were informed that the sale of the popular WI Denman college had been completed and was to revert to being a family home and estate. Preparations are in hand for our jubilee tea party and volunteers are needed for cakes, hosting decorations and memorabilia. We had all received a beautiful invitation to this event on our arrival today.

After coffee we had our annual resolution discussion. This was presented by Mary Boyd-Camps and Rose Stephenson. The subject was based on Women and Girls with ASD and ADHD who are found to be under-identified under-diagnosed and under-supported. We heard about numerous agencies that are involved in coping with the problem. It has been discovered that females mask their symptoms, take their problems out on themselves and are consequently ignored. Males tend to show more visible signs of their problems. As a group we voted to have this resolution taken to government level by NFWI.

Next month's meeting is our Jubilee celebration to be held on Monday 13 June from 2:30pm.

Milk Shed Flowers

I set off early on Friday 6 May to get milk from the Nunton Milk shed, to find a lovely bouquet of flowers with a sign saying 'Take me Home' which I duly did as I'm an obedient sort and didn't want the flowers to wilt in the sun.

The bouquet was left by a member of Salisbury Flower Club to celebrate 'National Flower Arranging Day' - NAFAS National Association of Flower Arrangement Society.

I'm guessing the anonymous donor could be a recipient of N&Ns and I would like to pass on my thanks for this kind gesture.

The card gave information that the Salisbury Flower Club meets at South Wilts. Grammar School on the 1st Thursday of the month.

Longford Castle, the private ancestral seat of the Radnor family for over 300 years, built by Elizabeth I's chief lady-in-waiting, will be opening its spectacular gardens to the public on Sunday 19th June from 2pm – 5pm in support of national charity, Horatio's Garden.

The charity's patron, the Countess of Radnor, generously offered to host the event at her home in order to help the charity celebrate the 10 year anniversary of the opening of their first garden for patients with spinal injuries, Horatio's Garden South West at The Duke of Cornwall Spinal Treatment Centre in Salisbury. The event will raise vital funds to support their beautiful, accessible garden project in Salisbury, which offers a calm and comforting accessible garden project in Salisbury, which offers a calm and comforting haven to support the physical and psychological rehabilitation of patients with spinal injuries, their families and the NHS staff who care for them.

Visitors will be invited to tour Longford Castle's private, stunning formal gardens whilst absorbing the remarkable architecture and atmosphere of this historic estate and may also explore the old garden alongside the River Avon.

Afternoon Tea (included in the ticket price) will be served throughout the afternoon, with the charity's volunteers making a delicious homemade bake alongside sandwiches, tea and scones. Guests will also be able to enjoy music by Hummingbird.

The charity's gorgeous, bespoke merchandise will be for sale too, alongside handcrafted goods created by volunteers, as well as plants grown in Horatio's Garden South West.

The event will be a unique opportunity for people to explore the beautiful gardens which are usually closed to the public, while also supporting the charity to celebrate its 10th anniversary.

Horatio's Garden South West was first opened in 2012, following a remarkable outpouring of love and goodwill in memory of Horatio Chapple. Horatio was a volunteer at the Duke of Cornwall Spinal Treatment Centre in Salisbury District Hospital when he first had the idea of creating a garden for patients with spinal injuries, who often spent many months in hospital with little to no access to the outside world. Tragically, Horatio was killed at the age of 17. His parents, Olivia and David, continued his fundraising efforts and have since gone on to establish Horatio's Garden as their son's thriving legacy.

In the ten years since the first garden opened, the charity has opened five more gardens, with its most recent garden – Horatio's Garden Wales – opening in April 2022. The charity's mission is to build a beautiful, therapeutic garden in each of the 11 NHS spinal injury centres in the UK and is currently fundraising for its seventh garden; Horatio's Garden Northern Ireland.

To ensure everyone's safety, pre-booking for the Horatio's Garden 10 Year Anniversary Garden Party at Longford Castle is essential. Tickets are available online now at www.horatiogarden.org.uk/longford10. Accessible car parking will be free and unlimited. The majority of the garden is accessible to wheelchairs.

Broad Chalke Open Gardens

Sunday 12 June

Six of Broad Chalke's most beautiful gardens will be on view from 1 – 5.30 pm on Sunday 12 June in a unique event to celebrate the Queen's Platinum Jubilee

This will be a rare opportunity to visit an interesting variety of private gardens within the Broad Chalke conservation area which are very rarely open to the public. They range from the extensive grounds of famous Reddish House - Cecil Beaton's former home (pictured); to the formal waterside gardens of medieval King's Old Rectory; and the pretty cottage garden of Anthony's Ground – a thatched house overlooking the water meadows of that name.

All six gardens are within easy walking distance of each another and a sketch map will be provided when visitors check in at the Village Hall from 12.30 onwards to buy their entry tickets for £5 a head. This price includes entry to all the gardens plus the village Jubilee exhibition and flower display in All Saints church opposite. Tea & home-baked cakes, plus toilet facilities will be available at the Hall, and there will be car parking around the village.

Proceeds of the day go towards the Wiltshire Community Foundation Welcome Fund for Ukrainian (and other) refugees, and towards Broad Chalke's church restoration project.

Police & Crime Commissioner

PCC Philip Wilkinson update

Increasing and improving the number ways my office, and Wiltshire Police, engage with communities is just one way to ensure Wiltshire has a police force which meets the needs of the people it serves.

We have to engage more with local communities and involve them in decision making, we simply have to excel at the basics. Slowly, this will have an impact and we will see an increase in our communities' trust that they are being heard and listened to.

Wiltshire Police is already making strides towards greater community engagement. We need to tell people who their local officers are as well as hearing when there has been great service or when there hasn't.

Making Wiltshire Safer has gone some way to bridge the gap between the police and the communities they serve. I believe it's not just about listening to those who shout the loudest, but also taking the time to meaningfully engage with those who feel they have limited influence.

This is where the Youth Commission plays such a crucial role, young people aged 14-25, are empowered to act as a critical friend to me and Wiltshire Police.

When it comes to young people we do find that, even with the best intentions, services and initiatives are provided for them, instead of with them and we risk alienating the very people we want to help.

We are now in the process of recruiting new members for the Youth Commission and I urge you to consider encouraging young people to apply.

I recognise there may be some sceptics who think this is lip service and won't result in tangible action or change. But that is not, and will never be, my leadership style.

My core responsibility is to represent Wiltshire and Swindon's residents when it comes to police and crime matters. This is not a responsibility that I take lightly or will shy away from.

This sort of sums up the Russians in Ukraine

How's the war going ?

A Russian wife turned to her husband and asked, "What's this special military operation our glorious leader keeps talking about?"

Her husband replied, "It's a proxy war between Russia and NATO."

"Oh, right. How's it going?"

"Well," he replied, "so far we've lost 24,000 soldiers, 2,000 tanks, 200 aircraft, numerous helicopters, and loads of armoured vehicles and artillery pieces and our flag ship, along with other naval pieces."

"Wow! What about NATO?"

"They haven't turned up yet."
