Poppy, the Retroodle and other things

My brother-in-law in Jersey has a dog called Poppy. She's a cross between a Retriever and a Poodle, and I call her a Retroodle, after the style of Labradoodle. These hybrid words are all the rage. Am I allowed to call them "hybords" (pronounced "high birds"), or is that too corny? I don't think it'll catch on!

"Brexit" is an example of a hybord. The trouble with Brexit is that while everyone knows which two words have been put together to form it, and therefore understand the broad principle, nobody knows what it really means in any detail, yet. The pre-referendum campaigns certainly did little to clarify the true implications of Brexit, or Bremain, votes.

We must just hope that Brexit turns out as well as my brother-in-law's Retroodle. She has grown from a lively puppy into a lovely dog. Certainly, the early signs for Brexit are not as bad as were feared by many, but it's still early days; we haven't left yet.

We pray about all sorts of things in Church and at Village Prayers, including a satisfactory outcome to Brexit. Perhaps more importantly, though, we pray for those near and dear to us, our families, friends and neighbours, and also for those in the wider world who are disadvantaged in any way. Please see details of church services below, and the back page for information about Village Prayers.

Odstock, Nunton and Bodenham WI

Anna Treseder

On 12th September, Heather Morrison, President, welcomed members to the first meeting after the summer recess. She thanked Peggy Knight for her attractive flower arrangement for the top table. Updates on some of the interest groups – Theatre, Skittles, Scrabble, Book Club, Walking Group Gardeners' and Fifth Monday followed. Sally Hadley was selling tickets for Line Dancing, a WI Keep Fit initiative, on 15th October. Sue Amey read out the WI invitations and reminded members to look at WI News and the ONB Monthly Diary for details of future events. The Christmas Lunch will be at The White Hart Hotel on 7th December – Sue was taking bookings.

Linda Cox is stepping down as Treasurer and the position is being taken over by Stella Flux. Members showed their appreciation to both Linda and Stella for having taken responsibility for this key role on the Committee. The Annual Council Meeting at City Hall on 26th October will be well attended by members. Gill Dodd won the ACWW competition "A Timepiece". Contributions of foodstuff for our charity, "Morning Star" were gratefully received.

After coffee Micky Fitzpatrick gave an interesting talk entitled "9 to 5 – No Thank You!" about her many and varied jobs. Julia Joynt gave the vote of thanks on our behalf.

The next meeting is on 10th October, when Gloria Henderson will talk about Antiques and will give valuations. This will be followed by the annual Autumn Lunch. Margaret Barrow took the list of members intending to stay for the meal.
